Jake E's Riding Round Up Rider Liability Release

I, undersigned, adult rider, or parent or guardian of _____ a minor rider, would like to participate at Jake E's Riding Round Up, hereinafter referred to as Jake E's. I acknowledge the risks and potential for risks of horseback riding. I understand the various populations served by Jake E's and understand that teens participating in Jake E's rehabilitation program, including adjudicated and/or troubled teens may be acting as volunteers and may be on the premises of Jake E's. I understand that I/my son/daughter/ward will be working with and around horses, as well as, riding horses of Jake E's; however, I feel that the possible benefits to myself/son/daughter/ward are greater than the risks assumed. I, the undersigned rider and/or parent or guardian, hereby intending to be legally bound for myself, my heirs and assigns, executors or administrators, waive and forever release, acquit, discharge and hold harmless all claims for damages against Jake E's, its board of directors, trustees, agents, instructors, therapists, employees, representatives, successors, assigns, volunteers, owners of the property on which Jake E's operates, for any and all manner of claims, demands and damages of every kind or nature whatsoever, which rider may now, or in the future have against Jake E's, its board of directors, trustees, agents, instructors, therapists, employees, representatives, volunteers, owners of the property on which Jake E's operates, successors or assigns on account of any personal injuries and/or personal damages known or unknown, or in anyway growing out of, the acts of Jake E's, its board of directors, trustees, agents, instructors, therapists, employees, representatives, volunteers, owners of the property on which Jake E's operates, successors or assigns.

I understand that under the Texas Equine Liability Act (Chapter 87, Civil Practice and Remedies Code), an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.
